

Lukwe EcoCamp and organic gardens. Lukwe means ‘a place of natural beauty’ and is perched on the side of an idyllic valley, close to the Manchewe and Kazichi Falls. We offer beautiful chalets built from natural materials, tented camps and a great camp site. Our restaurant serves delicious fresh food from our organic garden, as well as fresh roasted coffee and a wide selection of drinks. Come and share our passion at Lukwe EcoCamp.

How to get to Lukwe EcoCamp and Organic Gardens

Own transport. make sure your vehicle has high ground clearance if you come via the Gorode. There are two other routes to Lukwe, especially if you're coming from the south. One is to go to Rumphu and take the extremely scenic dirt road (78 km), in the rainy season you will need a 4X4 vehicle. The other and better option is to turn off at Phwezi and join the back road to Lukwe.

Taxi. Lukwe (0999 43 49 85) can also arrange a vehicle to collect you at Chitimba, but this costs around 50 US$ and it only brings you one way.

On foot. From the main north-south road (M1) between Karonga and Mzuzu the road to Livingstonia turns off at the Chitimba road block, from here you can hike 12 kilometers to Lukwe, climbing gradually 800 meters in altitude, the walk takes 3 to 4 hours. Backpackers can leave as much luggage as possible at Chitimba Camp, 1 km north of the road block, and walk up with a small bag to Lukwe. Guides and porters can be hired at Chitimba Camp. You can walk down either by the escarpment road Gorode or via an alternative path lions trail.

GPS Coordinates S10 35.134 E34 07.668

There is no public transport between Chitimba and Livingstonia, but a few vehicles switch back up and down every day, with an early start you can be reasonably confident of finding a lift.

Lukwe EcoCamp & Organic Gardens

Auke Swennen

PO Box 20

Livingstonia – Malawi

email. Lukwe@live.com

web. www.lukwe.com

tel. +265 (0) 99 94 34 985